By Com'r Breckinridge:

Q What is his Cherokee Name? A Ka-whoo-sitt.

1880 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined and applicant not found;

1880 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined for applicants's mother and found on page 313 #2306 Aswy Squirrel, Delaware Dist.

Q Did they call you Sulalee? A Yes sir.

1896 census roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined and applicant identified thereon as follows:
page 541 #3106 Jack Squirrel, Delaware District.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and 2 children; the applicant is evidently a full-blood Cherokee; he cannot be identified on the roll of 1880, though he is 42 years of age, but his deceased mother is identified on that roll; his father died prior to that time; the applicant is identified on the roll of 1896; no doubt is entertained that he has lived as he testifies in the Cherokee Nation all his life, but the name he bore in 1880 cannot be established at this time; he will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood; his wife Annie, is a white woman; she is shown by satisfactory personal testimony to have married the applicant four years ago; it appears that neither was previously married; and her marriage is too late however, to entitle her to enrollment at this time, under the Cherokee law relating to intermarriage, of December 16, 1898, and the applicant's wife will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by intermarriage upon a rejected card. When proper certificates of birth for the two children, Willie and Peter, Squirrel, are filed with the Commission, aged respectively, 2 years and six months old; these children will also be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

M.D. Green, being first duly sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q Is she a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation; all your life?
A Born here, yes sir.
Q Never lived outside? A Been in the Choctaw two years and the Creek one year.
Q When; the last three years? A Yes sir.
Q For the past year you have been in the Creek Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Before that, two years in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir, about two.
Q With that exception you have lived in the Cherokee Nation all your life? A Yes sir.

Q Now regarding the separation between yourself and wife; did she leave you or did you leave her? A I left her. She left. Of course, she considered that I left her. She come away from down there. ~~WAAAA~~
Q Did you tell her to leave you? A I told her to do as she pleases; if she didn't go I would.
Q She left virtually by your consent and instructions? A Yes sir.
Q Her application for enrollment is pending because of the separation-- do you care to state anything that will indicate who is too blame for this separation; were you compelled as a matter of duty to tell her to leave you, or was it a question of incompatibility?
A I consider that I was forced to leave.
Q Was her conduct such as to make you feel that it was absolutely necessary as an honest man that you and she should part company? A Yes sir.
Q Have you applied for a divorce from her? A No sir.
Q Why not? A I never cared for it.
Q You and she have parted more than once, haven't you? A Yes, on two occasions.
Q And you lived together after your first separation for a while?

A About a week, I believe.

Q Was her conduct any different in connection with the last separation than it was in the first separation? A I consider it worse.

Q What was it act of temper? A Yes sir, that was one, and mistreating the children.

Q And yet the child is living with her? A Yes sir.

Q Living with her by your consent? A No sir.

Q Are you making any efforts to get the custody of the child? A I have just recently.

Q One serious objection is she does not properly treat the child—how could you let the child go with her? A I couldn't go and take it by force.

Q How long has she been away from you now? A Two years in February, I believe; it will be two years in February.

Q Is that all you wish to state? A I guess that it all that is necessary.

Q Did she abandon you? A I consider that I did.

Q You consider that she didn't abandon you in the sense that the law speaks of abandonment? A No sir.

Commissioner-Breckinridge-

The applicant is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, except a brief absence in the Choctaw and Creek Nation which is occasioned by his having ministerial charges in those countries, and is not considered to invalidate his citizenship in the Cherokee Nation. He will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. It is also directed that a copy of this testimony be filed with the application of Mary L. Cloud, his wife, Case D-719.

E.G. Rothenberger, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings and testimony in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 21st day of November, 1906.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Eura Dick and Verna Dick as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1906, applications were received at this office for the enrollment, as minor citizens of the Cherokee Nation, of Eura and Verna Dick, under the provisions of Section two of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906, (34 Stat. 137). A copy of certain proceedings had at Vinita, Indian Territory, September 26, 1900, before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Washington Dick, et al., as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, is filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicants herein, Eura and Verna Dick are the minor children of one Washington Dick, a regularly enrolled citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and Sarah A. Dick, a non citizen white woman, who were united in marriage about the year 1891; that the said Eura and Verna Dick were born to them in lawful wedlock on March 20, 1903, and August 23, 1905, respectively, and were living March 4, 1906.

Section two of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906, (34 Stat. 137), in part provides:

"That for ninety days after approval hereof applications shall be received for enrollment of children who were minors living March fourth, nineteen hundred and six, whose parents have been enrolled as members of the Choctaw, Chickasaw, Cherokee, or Creek tribes, or have applications for enrollment pending at the approval hereof, and for the purpose of enrollment under this section illegitimate children shall take the status of the mother, and allotments shall be made to children so enrolled."

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That under the provisions of Section two of the Act of Congress above noted, Eura Dick and Verna Dick are entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly granted.

Commissioner.

In the matter of the application of Franklin R. Mitchell for enrollment of himself and his daughter, Trilby Triassic Mitchell, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION.

The record in this case shows that on July 20, 1906 Franklin R. - Q Which Mr. Ross was that? A Mr. Jones' book keeper.
- Q At Wagoner? A Yes sir.
- Q Was Ross a Notary Public? A Yes, he didn't ask me no date nor nothing--just asked me if I was there when the baby died and I told him yes.
- Q How did you sign your name? A Susan Allen.
- Q You write your own name, don't you? A Yes, I write my own name; he never asked me no date.
- Q That is your signature, isn't it? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you usually see papers and sign them without knowing what is in them? A Well, he asked me if I was there when the child died; of course I was there; I didn't tell him any story about it.
- Q You swore in that affidavit that the child died on the 6th day of March, 1906? A No, he never told me no date; he just asked me what night it was it died and if I was there.

Witness excused.

CLOSE OF TESTIMONY FOR THE CHEROKEE NATION.

Phenia Manley, being first duly sworn by Harry Montague, a Notary Public, testified as follows:

Examination by Mr. Crump:

- Q State your name please? A Phenia Manley.
- Q How old are you? A 24 years old.
- Q You are the wife of Jackson Manley are you? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you and Jackson have a child, Kissie, born to you that the witnesses have been testifying about? A Yes sir.
- Q When was that child born? A The 1st day of February, 1906.
- Q ~~When was that child born? A The 1st day of February, 1906.~~ When did the child die?
- A She died the 6th day of March, 1906.
- Q Do you know anything about Life Baker having gone to Wagoner court just after the child died? A Yes sir.
- Q What day was the child buried? A She died the 7th, and they

- went to court on the 8th
- Q Were you present at the time Susan Allen made the affidavit filed in this case? A Yes sir.
- Q Were you present when Mr. Ross swore her to the affidavit?
- A Yes, I was the one that brought the affidavit to him and had him fix it up.
- Q Did Mr. Ross read the affidavit to her? A Yes, he read it to her to see if it was right.
- Q Did he read it to her before she signed it and was sworn to it?
- A No, he didn't till he had it all fixed and then he told her to sign her name.
- Q After he read it to her or before? A Before she signed her name and before I signed my name to it he read it to see if it was all right.
- Q What day of the week did your child die? A It was Tuesday I think. Monday or Tuesday. I didn't put the day of the week; I just put the 6th of March on the book.
- Q Have you got any other children Mrs. Manley? A Yes.
- Q Not by Mr. Manley though? A No.
- Q Is the other child on the roll? A Yes sir.
- Q Mrs. Manley, these witnesses that have been testifying here, have any of them been having trouble with you and your husband?
- A Yes, Brewer, he is the one that started it; he says that Manley swore a lie about our child's death and burial, and he got Mr. Black, a lawyer to write to Washington to get this affidavit and application to show that was a lie about the child, and so when he wrote he found that Jackson Manley had nothing to do with it; it was my sister and Mrs. Hayman.
- Q Who was Mrs. Hayman? A The midwife.
- Q Did she make an affidavit about its birth and death? A She made an affidavit about its birth. So Mr. Brewer found out that Manly didn't have anything to do with it after all. Manley had nothing to do with it at all and that was the reason they caused this trouble. All these people know the child died on the 6th of March, 1906, and never said anything about it until Brewer and Jackson had this trouble and then they all swore she died on the 4th; she didn't; she died on the 6th and they knew it all the time I was putting the baby on the roll.
- Q Are your sister and her husband on good terms with you and your husband? A No, and never have been for a good while.

Examination by Mr. Hastings:

- Q Have you got anybody over there about Sleeper that's on good terms with you? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you brought anybody here besides yourself and your husband as witnesses? A No.
- Q You couldn't get any of your neighbors--nobody living around there-- to come here to testify as to when that child died, could you? A We didn't try to.
- Q When this case was continued from a week ago to have until today, that it would be as to the date of the death of this child? You knew it would be as to that, didn't you?
- A Yes.
- Q Baker, he had made the coffin for this child? A Yes sir.
- Q His wife was present when the child died? A Yes sir.
- Q Your sister Mrs. Allen was present when the child died?
- A Yes sir.
- Q This man Cannon went to town to get some clothes- some things

- to make its burial clothes out of? A I don't remember whether it was him or somebody else. I don't think it was.
- Q You got them at Jones' store? A Yes sir.
- Q And you sent an order for the clothes? A I didn't send that order.
- Q But you did send an order? A Yes sir.
- Q You say someone went whom you don't exactly recall?
- A I don't remember who went.
- Q You know that order (Exhibit A) is in your own handwriting?
- A No, it is not.
- Q You know "Jackson Manley" is your signature? A No, he don't write.
- Q But that's your signature. A No, I didn't write that.
- Q That is your signature isn't it? A No sir.
- Q You sign your name don't you? A Yes sir.
- Q You signed your name to these affidavits in here didn't you?
- A Yes, but that's not my writing at all (referring to Exhibit A) I swear that is not my writing, and that is not the kind of paper I use.
- Q You did send over there to Jones for material to make the burial clothes? A Yes sir.
- Q This is your "Manley" signature on the birth affidavit of this child, isn't it? A Yes, to the birth affidavit.
- Q This is your signature to the death affidavit isn't it?
- A Yes sir.
- Q You did send to Jones after clothes to make the burial clothes
- A Yes sir.
- Q This child was buried on Sunday, wasn't it? A No sir.
- Q These parties that testified here that they were present at the funeral or burial of this child were not there?
- A Yes, they will testify anything.
- Q You were not able to get any of your neighbors over there to come and testify as to the date of the burial? A I said we didn't try. We have the affidavit here, and application.
- Q You didn't try to get any of them to come? A No.
- Q Are any of them on good terms with you? A Yes, but these people here; they are the only ones we have been having trouble with.

Examination by the Commissioner:

- Q How many days old was your child when it dies? A Four weeks and six days, and it died the 6th; born the 1st day of February, and the 1st day of March it would be a month old, and then on to the 6th.
- Q Are you positive as to the date of this death? A Yes, I went by the almanac.
- Q Did you put down in your family bible or any place, the date of its birth and also the date of its death? A Yes.
- Q Where did you put it down? A In a big book we got at home.
- Q Have you that book with you? A No sir.
- Q Did you examine this book before you came down here?
- A Yes sir.
- Q And the date of the birth given in the book was February 1, and the date of its death was March 6th? A Yes sir.

By Mr. Hastings:

- Q You didn't bring the book with you? A No, I didn't. If I had thought I would have brought it all right.

Witness excused.

Jackson Manly being first duly sworn by Harry Montague,
a Notary Public, testified as follows:

Examination by Mr. Crump:

- Q State your name? A Jackson Manley.
Q Mr. Manley, can you either read or write? A No, I can't read or write.
Q The witness that has just left the stand is your wife is she?
A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether your wife set the date of the birth and death of your child down in a book? A Yes, she told me to hand her the book and she put it down in the book.
Q You couldn't read or write and couldn't tell what she put there?
A No, I just saw her put it there. I told her I wanted to buy a tomb stone to put for its grave.
Q Did you buy a tomb stone? A No, not yet.
Q You don't remember yourself about the date. A Only what Lige Baker told you. We had to go to court. I said what day of the month did we have to go on the trial, and I disremember whether it was the 7th or 8th, and the baby was buried the day before we went. We went the next morning.

Witness excused.

By agreement between the attorney for the applicant and the attorney for the Cherokee Nation this case will be continued until October 10, 1908 at 9 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of introducing the court records for the then Northern District at Wagoner, for the purpose of showing relative to the subpoenas having been issued for Elijah Baker and Jackson Manley in the case of the United States vs. Rufe Arnet; and also, the accounts of H. F. Jones referred to in the testimony.

In pursuance of the continuance in this case, the following proceedings are had this day:

There is filed by the attorney for the Cherokee Nation a stipulation signed by the attorney for applicant and the attorney for the Cherokee Nation that the Commissioner send a representative to Wagoner for the purpose of taking the testimony for which this case was continued until today.

Since filing this stipulation, the Cherokee Nation has produced as a witness R. A. Ross, book-keeper for the H. F. Jones Mercantile Company, who has in his possession an account book of said Company, and as said witness states he is compelled to return to his home at Wagoner on the train about to depart, his testimony will be taken by the Commissioner in the absence of the attorney for applicant.

R. A. Ross, being first duly sworn by Notary Public, Walter W. Chappel, and examined, testified as follows:

BY J.O.ROSSON ON BEHALF OF COMMISSIONER.

Q Have you in your possession one of the store books of that Company? A I have.

Q Does that book show anything with reference to merchandise purchased for Jackson Manley or his wife? A I have. It does.

Q What does your record show? A It shows that on March 3, 1906, that they filled an order for J. V. Manley, Jackson Manley, for $1.45.

Q Do you know what goods were purchased on that day? A All that I know was the goods were gotten for burial for a child. I got the ticket from a man that come got the order.

Q Is that just your recollection. A Well, no, I know that for the fact they have the order on file, the ticket itemized the account. They came and asked for these things, I don't know what they wanted with them.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment under the provisions of the Act of Congress of April 26, 1906, of Kizzie Manley as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

FINDING OF FACT.

The records of this office show that on May 25, 1906, there was received an application for the enrollment, under the provisions of the Act of April 26, 1906, of Kizzie Manley, born February 1, 1906, a child of Jackson Manley, a non citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and Phoenia Manley (enrolled as Phoenia Rogers), whose name appears opposite No. 4376 upon the approved roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that the name of Kizzie Manley appears opposite No. 2636 upon the approved roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation enrolled under the provisions of said Act.

The records further show that on April 15, 1907, there were filed affidavits executed by said Phoenia Manley and one Susan Allen as to the death of Kizzie Manley on March 6, 1906. It having been represented to the Commissioner that Kizzie Manley died prior to March 4, 1906, and was not, therefore, entitled to enrollment and to an allotment of land in the Cherokee Nation, the case was set for hearing at the office of the Commissioner on September 18, 1908, for the purpose of taking testimony to determine the exact date of the death of Kizzie Manley, of which action all parties in interest were notified. Further proceedings were had in the matter at the office of the Commissioner on September 25, and October 10, 1908.

There are filed herewith and made a part of the record herein an "Order," identified as exhibit "A," a stipulation between the attorneys for applicant and the Cherokee Nation and a copy of the report of the District Agent as to what the records show relative to the attendance of witnesses before the United States Grand Jury at Wagoner, Oklahoma, on March 5, 1906, in the case of the United States versus Rufus Arnett.

The evidence introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation is to the effect that Kizzie Manley died Friday night, March 2, or early Saturday morning, March 3, 1906, and was buried Sunday, March 4, 1906. The witness Elijah Baker, who testified on behalf of the Nation, gives as an additional reason why he knows the child died either March 2, or March 3, and was buried March 4, 1906, is that he "was summoned to Wagoner to court on the 5th of March, on Monday - the next day after it was buried." Introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation is what purports to be an order, dated March 3, 1906, signed "Jackson Manley," to H. F. Jones for dry goods, and the Nation introduced testimony to the effect that it was upon this order that clothes for the burial of the body of Kizzie Manley were obtained. R. A. Ross, Book-keeper for the H. F. Jones Mercantile Company of Wagoner, Oklahoma, appeared for the Nation and produced a store book of the company in which it is shown that on March 3, 1906, an order was filled for J. V. Manley for dry goods to the value of $1.45.

Phoena Manley, mother of Kizzie Manley, deceased, testified that the child died March 6, and was buried March 7, 1906, and that "they (Elijah Baker and Jackson Manley) went to court on the 8th," and when asked as to the day of the week her child died she stated that "it was Tuesday I think. Monday or Tuesday. I didn't put the day of the week I just put the 6th of March on the book." She further testified that the clothes for the burial of Kizzie Manley were purchased from H. F. Jones' store; that she sent an order for the clothes but that she did not sign the order which was introduced in evidence and did not sign the name "Jackson Manley" to the order. Jackson Manley, father of said Kizzie Manley, testified that he cannot read or write, and when asked as to whether he remembers the date of the death of Kizzie Manley he answered: "Only what Lige Baker told you. We had to go to court. I said what day of the month did we have to go on the trial, and I disremember whether it was the 7th or 8th, and the baby was buried the day before we went. We went the next morning."

The report of the District Agent of the examination of the court records for the then Northern District of Indian Territory shows that on February 21, 1906, among others, one Jackson Manley and one Eli Baker gave bond in the sum of $150. each for their appearance before the United States Grand Jury at Wagoner, Oklahoma, on March 5, 1906, in the case of the United States versus Rufus Arnett, and the witness book of the March term of court, beginning March 5, 1906, shows that I. Manley and R. A. Baker, of Sleeper, were paid witness fees and mileage for attendance upon court on March 5, 1906.

March 2, 3, 4 and 5, 1906, fell on the following days, Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, respectively. From the evidence introduced it seems to be clearly and conclusively established that Kizzie Manley was buried on Sunday, March 4, 1906, and that she died previous to that time, either early Saturday morning, March 3, 1906, or late Friday night, March 2, 1906.

I am therefore of the opinion, and so find, that Kizzie Manley died prior to March 4, 1906, and is not entitled to be enrolled and receive an allotment of land as a Cherokee citizen under the provisions of the Act of Congress of April 26, 1906 (34 Stat., 137).

Sir:

This office is in receipt of your letter of July 2, 1908, stating that "Kizzie Manley, a Cherokee citizen, died on March 2, 1906, notwithstanding which her father, Jackson Manley, made an affidavit that she was living on March 4, 1906, and selected for her an allotment in the Cherokee Nation." In reply you are advised the records show that on May 25, 1906, application in affidavit form was received for the enrollment, under the provisions of the Act of April 26, 1906, of Kizzie Manley, child of Jackson and Phoea Manley, the application alleging that said child was born February 1, 1906, "and was living March 4, 1906." The affidavits were executed by Phoena Manley as mother, and Mrs. Nanie Hayman as midwife. The name of said child was placed upon the roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation enrolled under the provisions of said Act, which was approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

On April 15, 1907, there were filed affidavits executed by said Phoena Manley and Susan Allen showing the death of said child on March 6, 1906, and on April 20, 1907, application for the selection of an allotment of land for said child was made.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Emily Weaver, et al., as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, consolidating the applications of:

Emily Weaver, et al.,	Memoranda 348
Thomas Kirk,	Cherokee D 963
Charlotte Newton,	Cherokee D 1220
Peggie Whitmire, et al.,	Cherokee R 618.

D E C I S I O N .

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That applications for enrollment as Cherokee citizens were made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Emily Weaver for herself and minor child, Lottie Robbins; by Susanna Kirk for, among others, her husband, Thomas Kirk, the others included in said application having been here before disposed of, their rights to enrollment as Cherokee citizens will not be considered in this decision; and by Charlotte Downing for herself and illegitimate minor children, Peggie Whitmire and Henry Bushyhead. Subsequent to filing her application herein the applicant, Charlotte Downing, was, on December 7, 1901, married to one John Newton, and she will now be listed for enrollment as Charlotte Newton. Copies of the testimony taken on July 19, 1900, at Westville, Indian Territory, in re application for the enrollment of Lewis, Weaver, et al., as Cherokee Freedmen, case No. 1227, and on September 21, 1900, at Vinita, and on October 29, 1902, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, in re application of Thomas Kelly, et al., for enrollment as Cherokee citizens, case No. 3167, are filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

THE RECORD FURTHER SHOWS: That, under date of October 6, 1901, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered its decision in certain Cherokee memorandum cases, among others that of Emily Weaver, et al., Memoranda case No. 348, refusing, under the act of May 31, 1900 (31 Stat., 221), to assume jurisdiction of the application for the enrollment of Emily Weaver and her minor child, Lottie Robbins, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that said decision was, on January 3, 1902 (Departmental letter I.T.D. 5698-01), affirmed by the Department. And that subsequent thereto the said Emily Weaver and Lottie Robbins were identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and upon request of the Commission, the record in this case (Memoranda 348) was, on August 2, 1902 (Departmental letter I.T.D. 4641-1902), remanded by the Department "in order that a decision may be prepared in conformity with the facts as now shown, and for the purpose of taking additional testimony, if necessary."

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That all the applicants herein, in their original applications for enrollment applied as Cherokees by blood. In Departmental letter of November 20, 1903 (I.T.D. 3484-02), it was held that the said Emily Weaver, though of one-half Cherokee blood, could not be classified as a Cherokee by blood, but must be classified as a Cherokee freedman. This is considered authority for classifying as a Cherokee freedman, not only Emily Weaver, but also the applicant, Thomas Kirk, son of the said Emily Weaver, who, the evidence shows, was born about the year 1860. Said Departmental letter further rules that an illegitimate child of Emily Weaver supposed to have been born subsequent to the close of the rebellion and prior to the making of the 1880 roll, although of three-fourths Cherokee blood, identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896 as a Cherokee by blood, and whose alleged father is identified on the Authenticated Cherokee tribal roll of 1880 as a native Cherokee, was "not entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee by blood" and "took the status of her mother." This is considered authority for classifying as Cherokee freedmen the applicants, Charlotte Newton and Lottie Robbins.

It is not intended in this decision to consider or adjudicate any rights to Cherokee citizenship the applicants Thomas Kirk and Charlotte Newton, formerly Downing, may have acquired by virtue of their marriage to duly recognized citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, but only such rights to enrollment as the applicants herein possess as Cherokee freedmen, or Cherokees by blood.

Under the evidence in this case, and after an examination of the records in Cherokee Freedmen cases Nos. 1227 and 1259, and Cherokee cases Nos. 351 and 356, and the Cherokee tribal rolls of 1880 and 1896, it is respectfully submitted that the attached diagram, relative to material facts in this consolidated case, is approximately correct.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS:

- (1) That the applicants, Emily Weaver and Thomas Kirk, are mother and son and were the slaves of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the Rebellion; that during said rebellion they were living outside the limits of the Cherokee Nation, but later returned thereto and established a residence therein, and have since continuously resided in said Nation, and are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896 as Cherokees by blood.
- (2) That the applicants Charlotte Newton and Lottie Robbins are illegitimate children of the said Emily Weaver and one Josh Robbins, deceased, who was a Cherokee by blood, were born subsequent to the close of the rebellion and prior to the year 1880, have continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation since birth, and are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896 as Cherokees by blood; that the minor applicants, Peggie Whitmire and Henry Bushyhead, are illegitimate children of the applicant Charlotte Newton, were born since 1890, have continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation since birth, and the former is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896 as a Cherokee by blood, and the latter by a birth affidavit filed herewith and made a part of the record herein. (It is asserted that the minor applicants Peggie Whitmire and Henry Bushyhead, are children of Ellis Whitmire, deceased, and Bob Bushyhead, who, it is alleged, are Cherokees by blood).
- (3) That none of the applicants herein can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, and possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen or as Cherokees by blood, other than as above indicated.

In view of the foregoing it is considered that in order to properly adjudicate said applicants' rights to enrollment as Cherokee citizens, on September 1, 1902, the only questions to be determined are:

Did Emily Weaver and Thomas Kirk return to the Cherokee Nation, after the rebellion, and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the Whitmire decree? and

Are the minor applicants, Peggie Whitmire and Henry Bushyhead, the children of fathers who were duly recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation?

EMILY WEAVER, applicant, appeared before the Commission on September 11, 1901, at Fort Gibson, Indian Territory, and testified in part as follows: I am about 60 years old, my post office is Westville, I was born and raised in the Cherokee Nation, have always made my home here, and have never lived in any other place. I was an applicant for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen in 1896, but was denied. (The records of this office fail to show that this person was an applicant before the Dawes Commission, for citizenship in 1896).

CHARLOTTE NEWTON, applicant, appeared before the Commission on September 11, 1901, at Fort Gibson, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am about 30 years old. My post-office is Westville, Indian Territory, and I am the daughter of Emily Weaver and Josh Robbins, deceased, who was a Cherokee by blood. I have two children, Peggie Whitmire and Henry Bushyhead, aged six and three years. Ellis Whitmire and Bob Bushyhead, a Cherokee by blood, are the fathers of my two children. I was not married to either of these men, and never lived with Ellis Whitmire, but did live with Bob Bushyhead about two months "when he went away and left me."

CHARLOTTE NEWTON, applicant, appeared before the Commission on October 18, 1902, at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and further testified as follows: I have two illegitimate children, Peggie Whitmire and Henry Bushyhead. Ellis Whitmire, who died about five years ago, and Bob Bushyhead, both Cherokees by blood, are the fathers of my children. I never lived with Ellis Whitmire, but did live with Bob Bushyhead three or four months.

CHARLOTTE NEWTON, applicant, appeared before the Commission on November 15, 1904, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, but added nothing material to her former testimony.

EMILY WEAVER, in behalf of Charlotte Newton, same date and place, testified, in part, as follows: I was on Red River, towards Texas, during the war. After the rebellion I returned to the Cherokee Nation with Aunt Liddy Quinten, and for sometime thereafter lived with her. I don't know what year this is, don't know any years at all, and never did know any.

LEWIS WEAVER, in behalf of the applicant, Charlotte Newton, same date and place, testified as follows: I was born in '51, '2 or '3, I don't know which, I knew I am about 52 or 53 years old, and I live near Westville, Going-Snake District, Cherokee Nation. I am a son of Emily Weaver. My mother had four children born to her before the war: "Rant (Anthony), Tom and Mary and me" and four born since the war: Rachel, Charlotte (Newton), and Lottie Robbins and Sam King, who is dead. Sam was younger than Charlotte and Lottie. I don't know how long my mother lived with the father of Sam King. So far as I know my mother was never married to any of the fathers of her children.

ISRAEL CRITTENDEN, in behalf of applicants, same date and place, testified as follows: I am about 50 or 60 odd years old, and I live near Westville, Indian Territory. I have known Charlotte Newton about all her life. Also know her mother, Emily Weaver, who is my half-sister, same father. I became acquainted with Emily Weaver during the war. I knew Josh Robbins, became acquainted with him in Polk County, Arkansas, during the war. I returned to the Cherokee Nation about two years after the war closed, and found Emily Weaver and Josh Robbins living together with my aunt, Liddy Quinton, about two miles south from where Westville is now situated, in Going-Snake District, Cherokee Nation.

ANTHONY (RANT) CRITTENDEN, in behalf of applicants, appeared before the Commission on November 16, 1904, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am 55 years old and live near hereford, Canadian District, Cherokee Nation. My mother, Emily Weaver, and Josh Robbins began living together in Going-Snake District, Cherokee Nation, about two years after the war closed, and lived together till Josh Robbins' death, several years later. Charlotte and Lottie Robbins were born to Emily Weaver during the time she lived with Josh Robbins.

(The records of this office fail to show that application for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen has been made for this witness, and he cannot be identified on any Cherokee roll in the possession of this office).

SUSANNA KIRK, in behalf of the applicant, Thomas Kirk, appeared before the Commission on December 13, 1900, at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am 35 years old, am a Cherokee by blood, and live in Tahlequah District. My husband's name is Tom Kirk. We were married in 1882. He is about 40 years old, and is a son of Emily Crittenden (Weaver), and has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life.

THOMAS KIRK, appeared before the Commission on February 21, 1905, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: My mother's name is Emily Weaver and my father was named Robert Kirk, so my mother told me, I never saw him.

EMILY WEAVER, applicant, appeared before the Commission on June 9, 1905, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I don't know my age, I guess I am about 50. My post-office is Prechter, and I live in Going-Snake District. I returned to the Cherokee Nation the year after peace was made, but I can't remember what year that was. I returned with Will and Lidda Quinton, Mrs. Fulton, Tom Kelly and Wyley Kelly and Rosanna and Nancy John.

LEWIS WEAVER, in behalf of applicants, same date and place, testified as follows: I am going on 50 years old, and I live in Going-Snake District. Emily Weaver is my mother. After the war closed we (my mother and I) returned to the Cherokee Nation "with old Aunt Liddy Quinton". "We started back the next year after peace was made, that is, I believe it was, but I am not certain."

THOMAS KELLY, in behalf of applicants, appeared before the Commission on July 20, 1905, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am about 57 years old and live in Cooweescoowee District. I became acquainted with Emily Weaver in Polk County, Arkansas, and have known her since before the war. The fall after the war closed we, Emily Weaver, her children, myself and others, started for the Cherokee Nation and arrived in Going-Snake District in February, '66. I was born in Sebastian County, Arkansas, moved from there to Polk County, Arkansas, and never lived in the Cherokee Nation prior to my removal here after the war. Elijah and Sidney Hillips (Cherokee owners of Emily Weaver) had been living in Polk County, Arkansas, for several years before the war came up. "I was married in '67 or '68, I think it was in the fall of '67 --- no, it was the fall of '66". I was married in Greenwood, Sebastian County, Arkansas, in the fall and came to the Cherokee Nation the next spring. We were on our road to the Cherokee Nation when I was married. We had been to the Cherokee Nation before, but Emily Weaver was not with us. She came with us in the spring of '67. I can neither read nor write. My memory is not good and it might be such a thing that I am mistaken a year or two as to these dates. I know George Crittenden, who lives at Westville. I guess he knows when we came to the Cherokee Nation. Jack Alberty came to the Cherokee Nation ahead of us. I think Emily had five or six children when we came to the Cherokee Nation as above indicated. I was mistaken when I said Emily Weaver came to the Cherokee Nation in the spring of '66, it was in the spring of '67. I may be mistaken as to the year I was married, it may have been as late as the year 1868, but I don't think it was that late when we came to the Cherokee Nation. I know Tom Kirk. He was born in Arkansas, and was just big enough to ride a horse when we came to the Cherokee Nation after the war. The first time I came to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion my father and grandmother were with me, I stayed about a week and went back to Arkansas, where I remained probably a month and we then started to the Cherokee Nation the second time, and came to Skullyville (Choctaw Nation) and made a crop there. My father went back from there and got my grandmother and these slaves. It was our third trip that Emily came with us. "I think me and my woman got married on the first trip". "We moved up to Skullyville County my second trip to the Cherokee Nation, and it was our third trip to the Cherokee Nation that Emily Weaver came with us." I was married in the fall and about the first of the next February following we started on our third trip to the Cherokee Nation. We had two teams stolen after we left Skullyville for the Cherokee Nation and had to lay over down here just the other side of Fort Smith. We stayed there about a week. Then we got across the river to Lees Creek and were water bound there a week or two. I don't know how long we were on the road this trip, but think it was in March when we arrived at our destination for we sowed a few oats and put out a corn crop upon our arrival.

In connection with the foregoing, attention is called to this witness's testimony given before the Commission on September 21, 1900, at Vinita, and on October 20, 1902, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, in his own behalf, Cherokee case No. 3167, Also to a letter written by said witness to Emily Weaver, under date of July 2, 1905, a copy of which is attached to the record herein.

ANTHONY (RANT) CRITTENDEN, in behalf of applicants, same date and place, testified as follows: I am about 55 or 56 years old and live in Canadian District. I am acquainted with Emily Weaver, she is my mother. I lived in Polk County, Arkansas, when the war closed, and left there and went to the Choctaw Nation in 1866. We left the Choctaw Nation in 1866, I don't remember what time in the year, and had traveled about one day when we lost our horses. We had not crossed the Arkansas river at the time our horses were lost. It was either in the fall or winter that we made this trip "and it was in 1867 that we got to where we were going." I think it was along in the spring that we arrived at our destination. We might have been a month and a half making this trip. We were detained several days at Lees Creek, Cherokee Nation, by high water. The party making this trip was composed of my mother, Emily Weaver, Thomas Kelly, Aunt Lydia Quinton, old man Kelly, and myself. I don't remember of having lived in the Cherokee Nation before the rebellion.

JOHN W. ALBERTY, in behalf of the Cherokee Nation, appeared before the Commission on July 27, 1905, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and testified as follows: I am 71 years old, am a Cherokee by blood, and my post office is Westville. I have lived in and around the vicinity of Westville for seventy-one years. I knew Elijah Phillips. "He left (the Cherokee Nation) for Polk County, Arkansas, immediately after the Emigrant Payment, it was in, I reckon, about 1852". He moved to Arkansas with his effects and was living there when the war came up. I knew a slave named Nellie who belonged to this Phillips family, who was the mother of Emily Weaver, and who died prior to the commencement of the rebellion. Emily belonged to the Phillips family, was taken to Arkansas with them and was living there when the war came up. After the close of the rebellion I was living on the same place that I am occupying now, which is about two and a half miles south of Westville. I knew Lydia Quinton, know her before the war. She was a Cherokee by blood and was a cousin of mine. She returned to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion in February, 1868. I remember this by reason of the fact that "I loaned her a wagon and team to move up there". I know that she brought Emily Weaver to the Cherokee nation with her on the trip made in February, 1868. After the rebellion I left Texas on the first day of September, 1866, and landed in the Cherokee nation the first week in October of the same year, and have since continuously lived in the vicinity of Westville. I made a crop near Westville the next year after my arrival, and the following fall Lige Phillips and Mrs. Quinton came to the Cherokee Nation to select a location. I loaned Mrs. Quinton a wagon to move with and the next February she returned, bringing with her some slaves, among others, Emily Weaver, Joe Weaver and old Levi Robbins also came with her on this trip. I know Tom Kelly, a Cherokee, but don't believe he came to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion with Lydia Quinton. It seems to me he came in the fall of '68. Lige Phillips, Lydia Quinton and Emily Weaver were living on Red River, Choctaw Nation, when the war closed, and Lige Phillips, taking with him Emily Weaver, moved from there back to Polk County, Arkansas, in February, 1866, and made a crop there that year.

GEORGE CRITTENDEN, in behalf of Cherokee Nation, same date and place, testified as follows: I am 60 years old, and with the exception of four years during the war, have lived in the vicinity of where Westville now is, all my life. I returned to the Cherokee Nation after the rebellion in the fall of 1867. I know Emily Weaver and Joe Weaver, also know Lydia Quinton, but don't know when Emily Weaver and Lydia Quinton returned to the Cherokee Nation. I know when Joe Weaver returned, it was in the spring of 1868, and we made a crop together that year. Joe Weaver was the father of one of Emily Weaver's children. I saw Joe and Emily Weaver during the war. They were then at Lige Phillips' place in Polk County, Arkansas. Aunt Lydia Quinton was not living near Westville when I returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1867, and the first time I saw her was sometime in 1868.

WAT WHITMIRE, in behalf of Cherokee Nation, same date and place, testified as follows: I am 53 years old, am a Cherokee by blood, and my post office is Westville. I lived in the vicinity of Westville before the war, and after the rebellion returned therein the fall of 1866, where I have since continuously lived. I know Emily Weaver, the applicant. The first time I remember seeing her was in January or February, 1868. She had just come in from Polk County, Arkansas, and was with a company composed of the Phillips family, the Kelly family, the Quinton family, and my uncle, Mese Crittenden. I remember this because my father said

"Your old uncle Nesc Crittenden has been gone from this country a good while and just got back". During the war we moved first to Cane Hill, Arkansas, then to the Choctaw Nation, on Red River, and were living there when the war closed. There were a good many Alberty's living in our neighborhood on Red River, but I never knew of Lige Phillips or Emily Weaver living down there. I saw Uncle Jack Alberty on Red River during the rebellion but don't know where he lived at that time. The first time I ever saw Lige Phillips or Emily Weaver was in the year 1868, when Lige Phillips bought a farm near Westville. Emily at that time was at his house.

JOHN W. ALBERTY (Uncle Jack), recalled, testified as follows: I knew Watt Whitmire during the rebellion. I lived about thirty-five miles from him, in the Choctaw Nation, on Red River, I lived at the mouth of the Kiamichi river, and he lived up at the mouth of Island Bayou.

C A S E C L O S E D .

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSION: It is considered that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Benjamin Crittenden, et al., (I.T.D. 3484- 02) supra., the applicants, Emily Weaver, Thomas Kirk, Charlotte Newton and Lottie Robbins, possess no rights to Cherokee citizenship as Cherokees by blood.

IT IS FURTHER CONSIDERED: That the evidence in this case shows that the applicants, Emily Weaver and Thomas Kirk, were the slaves of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion; that prior thereto and during said rebellion, they lived outside of the limits of the Cherokee Nation, and did not thereafter, remove to and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. The Cherokee Nation et al., for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation; and that all the other applicants herein were born since the close of the rebellion and possess no rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than as descendants of the said Emily Weaver.

IT IS FURTHER CONSIDERED: That after ample opportunity having been afforded, the evidence in this case fails to show that the applicants, Peggie Whitmire and Henry Bushyhead are the children of the said Ellis Whitmire, deceased, who, it is alleged, was a Cherokee by blood, and the said Bob Bushyhead, who it is alleged, is a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, consequently, the application for their enrollment comes within the ruling of the Department in the cases of Eliza Bryant, et al (I.T.D. 544-04) William Rector (I.T.D. 1468- 04) Minnie Duncan et al., (I.T.D. 1470-04), Samantha Chambers (I.T.D. 2296- 04), Ed Williams (I.T.D. 4230-04), and Moses Ross (I.T.D. 6056-04). In connection with this last finding, attention is called to the case of Sallie Brooks, et al., Cherokee Freedmen Rejected case No. 54, where, under a somewhat similar, but stronger, record relative to illegitimate descendants of recognized Cherokee citizens, it was held by the Commission that "Aside from the fact that the gross immorality the mother and alleged fathers of said minor applicants acknowledge themselves guilty of, is, in itself, sufficient to discredit their testimony, and render it of little value, it is considered by the Commission that to grant the application for the enrollment of illegitimate minor applicants on the testimony of the mother and putative fathers alone, would be to establish a dangerous precedent--- one which could not be safely followed".

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED, that, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), Emily Weaver, Lottie Robbins, Thomas Kirk, Charlotte Newton, Peggie Whitmire and Henry Bushyhead, are not entitled to enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, nor as Cherokees by blood, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Cherokee N.B. 2399.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mary Newton as a Cherokee Freedman.

DECISION.

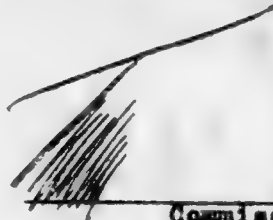

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: that on May 24, 1906, application was received at this office for the enrollment as a minor citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Mary Newton under the provisions of Section Two of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906, (34 Stat. 137).

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Mary Newton, who was born August 28, 1904 and was living March 4, 1906, is the minor child of one John Newton, a non-citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and Charlotte Newton, nee Downing, an alleged Cherokee freedman, and possesses no right to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman not possessed by her said parents. It is further shown that on September 29, 1905, the application for the enrollment of the said Charlotte Newton, nee Downing, as a Cherokee freedman was denied by the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, and his decision was, on said date, forwarded to the Department for review.

Section two of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906, (34 Stat. 137), in part provides:

"That for ninety days after approval hereof applications shall be received for enrollment of children who were minors living March fourth, nineteen hundred and six, whose parents have been enrolled members of the Choctaw, Chickasaw, Cherokee or Creek tribes, or have applications for enrollment under this section illegitimate children shall take the status of the mother, and allotments shall be made to children so enrolled."

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That Mary Newton is not entitled to enrollment as a Cherokee freedman and her application as such is accordingly denied.

Section two of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906, (34 Stat. 137), in part provides:

"That for ninety days after approval hereof applications shall be received for enrollment of children who were minors living March fourth, nineteen hundred and six, whose parents have been enrolled as members of the Choctaw, Chickasaw, Cherokee, or Creek tribes, or have applications for enrollment pending at the approval hereof, and for the purpose of enrollment under this section illegitimate children shall take the status of the mother, and allotments shall be made to children so enrolled."

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That under the provisions of said Section two of the Act of Congress above noted, George Washington Reece is entitled to enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly granted.

He is identified as having come to the Cherokee Nation with the North Carolina Cherokees in 1880, and he has lived here ever since. He is also identified on the roll of 1896. He will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. His present wife is shown to have married him in October, 1899. He files a decree of divorce from his former wife, which he states occurred in September, the same year of his present marriage. The decree, however, is without date. In any event, his present marriage is too late under Cherokee law of Dec. 16, 1895 to entitle his present wife to enrollment, and therefore, the application for her enrollment is rejected. He files a license and certificate of marriage as relates to his first wife, Maud, who is shown to have been married to him on the 26th of June, 1897. He states that the child was born in September of the same year, and it appears from the decree of divorce filed in this case, that she was put away for immoral conduct. Clearly, this child cannot be considered as a lawful child, entitled to enrollment at this time, and therefore, the application for the enrollment of his child is rejected.

E. G. Rothenberger, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full the testimony and proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 4th day of December, 1900.

Can I now change my filing so as to include the surplus of holding of my wife or will I necessarily be compelled to file my minor child upon this land now held by my wife an adopted citizen. If I can change my filing I wish to do so for good and sufficient reasons.

Commissioner to the Five Tribes,

My dear Sir:

I am instructed by the Civic League of this city enrollment under the recent Act of Congress authorizing enrollment of children born prior to March 4, 1906 .

We are creditably informed by reliable authority that one John Welch, a Cherokee, living on Big Creek, 7 miles south of this place , has enrolled an infant, claiming that it was born prior to March 4th. From the facts before us we are convinced that such a claim is fraudulent, the child not being born for some time (two or three weeks) after that date. This fact can be established we believe , by investigation, all the information we have, the names of those we believe to have knowledge of the facts, being at your service at any time, even including the attending physician.

I would suggest you keeping this report as it is intended, a confidential communication and that it may prevent any contemplated fraud.
